MURDER MYSTERY

Saturday 28th January

'A Dickens of a Christmas' (Optional costume – Victorian Urchin or Toff).

It is 1881, Lord Hockton, the benefactor of the Eastgate Avenue Workhouse, has thrown a party for the workhouse inmates. It is most unusual for a workhouse to throw any sort of party for their inmates, it is normally a very harsh environment - so you can guarantee that it is going to be a very interesting evening indeed. But why are some of the inmates of the Eastgate Workhouse disappearing - never to be seen again? And what is the real reason behind Lord Hockton's generosity?.

£29.95 per person to include a 3 course meal with coffee.

MURDER MYSTERY

Friday 10th February

St Valentine's Day Massacre (Optional Costume –1920s).

It is 1929. Jack (Johnny) Johnson runs the 'Starlight Rooms', a lucrative night club. Despite living in Britain Johnny styles himself as a Chicago gang leader and the local constabulary tend to ignore him. However, when detectives find a link between a series of murders and the Starlight Rooms, the police become very interested indeed. What has Johnny been up to? Is someone trying to frame him - and if so who?

£29.95 per person to include a 3 course meal with coffee.

MURDER MYSTERY

Friday 1st September

'Carry on Murdering' (Optional costume – standard party wear).

Join the Matron, the doctor, W C Boggs and many others as the Carry on Comeback Society (COCS) holds its annual party and announces they are funding the new film, Carry On Murdering. But is everyone happy with the choice of director? Does everyone like the new script and would somebody kill to get the part they want?

£29.95 per person to include a 3 course meal with coffee.

MURDER MYSTERY

Friday 27th October

'The Haunting' (Optional costume – ghosts, vampires etc.)

The room you are having dinner in tonight is haunted. It is said that an awful murder was committed in the dining room and the victim cannot rest until the bloody act has been avenged. Can Gordon Summers, local researcher and fellow of the British Institute of parapsychology and his colleagues find out the truth or will his investigations lead to tragedy and death?

£29.95 per person to include a 3 course meal with coffee.
